

Spain Package

10N/11D

DAY 1: ARRIVE MADRID

Madrid is an ex-convent schoolgirl, a rebellious teenager who pushed the boundaries of hedonism and then grew up and got sophisticated without ever forgetting how to have fun! That's why this is a city as at home in the nightclubs and bars that give the streets their soundtrack as it is in the hallowed halls of high culture. The day is at leisure for you to relax.

Overnight at Madrid

DAY 2: BULL FIGHT & CITY TOUR!

The day is with fun and adventure! The Spainards' passion for bullfighting is visible on a tour of the Real Maestranza bullring and its onsite museum, which houses paintings and embellished matador costumes. Seville is said to be where bullfighting in the modern sense first started (before then, bullfighting had been on horseback). Explore Madrid on a city tour including The Royal Palace today, on the Hop-on-Hop-Off bus. Watch the passing parade in the buzzing Plaza Mayor, which for centuries has been the centrepiece of Madrid life. El Rastro, is one of Europe's most famous, fascinating flea markets. Shop for the latest Spanish designs on the glamorous Calle de Serrano! A stroll among the crowds at the ParquedelBuenRetiro is a must in a Madrid evening. Overnight at Madrid

DAY 3: MADRID - VALENCIA

This morning our journey continues to Valencia. Welcome to Bright City! Valencia is amongst the liveliest city in Spain. If you want to spend your holidays at the beach, with fantastic possibilities for any kind of sports (golf, diving, cycling, tennis, etc.) and a boiling nightlife, together with an ample cultural offer, then Valencia is the place for you. In the evening enjoy Spain's finest and most authentic Flamenco Show. The show's traditional Spanish-Catalan cuisine also commits to a sumptuous and Paella dinner!

Overnight at Valencia

DAY 4: VALENCIA HOP ON HOP OFF

Today morning proceed for the City tour of Valencia. Discover Valencia on a fast and comfortable way in a double decker bus tour with audio-guide. You can visit both the old town and the most cosmopolitan areas: Plaza de la Reina, la Lonja, Serrano towers, Quart towers, the Ciudad de lasArtes y lasCiencias and the Oceanográfico. The traveller can get off at stops and deepen in visiting the city, and have the possibility of returning later to the stop and get into the bus to continue the panoramic visit of the city throughout the day.

DAY 5: VALENCIA - LA TOMATINA

No matter what floats your boat or revs your engine, you can find a celebration to suit your mood -- from crowd crazy tomato throwing at Spain's Tomatina. It is the ultimate food fight, a festival for which people travel thousands of miles and all for the pleasure of pelting, and being pelted, by tomatoes. What a blast!

Overnight at Valencia.

DAY 6: VALENCIA - BARCELONA Today we move towards Barcelona. Are you keen to taste the genuine food and drinks of the region, and to hear all about Spanish and Catalan cuisine? Do you want to discover the culinary aspects of the city and maybe learn some new recipes for taking back home? If this is so, then here is your chance on the Tapas tour (Optional). The tours take you to places where locals eat and buy their food, and avoid overcrowded tourist haunts like the Mercat de la Boqueria and similar places. Even in bad weather the tours go ahead regardless sun or rain! All tours can also be enjoyed by vegetarians. Overnight at Barcelona

DAY 7: BARCELONA

If you've only got an hour to spare, don't miss this whistlestop tour of all the best bits of Barcelona. Using GPS technology, our GoCars tell you where to drive and take you on an hour-long tour, talking to you all the way and telling the stories that bring Barcelona to life. This tour starts by going around the Arc de Triomf and Parc de la Ciutadella, you then go by the most visited monument in all Spain, the Sagrada Família. Continue with the impressive and characteristic architecture on Passeig de Gràcia, and finish up by cruising through the mythical Rambles towards the Mirador de Colom. Once you reach the sea, you might even have time to stop off and enjoy the lively beaches of Barcelona. Overnight at Barcelona

DAY 8: BARCELONA - IBIZA

Ibiza is often called the White Island for its typical architecture & is famous for its "Hippie-Culture" and nudist beaches. Ibiza offers ample to the young ones who are attracted by the island's rollicking nightlife, which already starts in the afternoon, at the beaches and in the center of town, to continue until dawn in the numerous discotheques. Overnight at Ibiza

DAY 9: IBIZA

Today you can leave the beaches behind, to explore the island's interior & explore the pure and simple Mediterranean culture, and remains of populations which inhabited Ibiza thousands of years ago, as for instance the famous wall-paintings of Ses Fontanelles. Today you can also visit D'Alt Vila, Necròpolis del Puig des Molins, Sa Penya, Cova de Can Marçà, Museu d'Art Contemporani, Museu Arqueològic, Museu Puget, etc. In the evening you can take a chance on Dance at the happening Nightclubs of Ibiza, namely; Pacha, Lola's Club, Blu, etc. Overnight at Ibiza

DAY 10: IBIZA

There is more to Ibiza than just Sun and Sand. Discover a world underwater today at one of the many Marine Resorts here at Ibiza. Head over to the Balearic Islands, where the Santa Eulalia and the Sant Antoni y Sant Josep Marine Resorts offers a full range of infrastructure to enjoy sun, sea and sport. It's a dive-lover's paradise with beautiful marine beds, crystal clear waters and exotic marine life. The morning is for you to relax and chill at the beach or hotel. Later head out for a Sea party! Nothing gets better than this! Pulsating music, enigmatic lighting & much more! Get ready to experience the party of a lifetime! Overnight at Ibiza
